2018 Legislative Priorities

NASWA's legislative priorities advance states' efforts to ensure our nation's workforce system meets employers' needs for a qualified workforce and promote high-quality employment and careers for workers. The agenda is comprised of five main categories with 10 specific points for congressional action.

It is a long way from Kansas to Afghanistan, and competing on Kansas State's rodeo team is a far cry from riding into battle on horseback. Yet that is exactly what happened to Green Beret Commander Mark Nutsch, whose story of military service is now a major motion picture, "12 Strong," and the subject of the best-seller, "Horse Soldiers." Nutsch will share... Read more

NASWA LAUDS WORKFORCE PROVISIONS IN OMNIBUS FY 2018 SPENDING BILL

On March 23rd after the omnibus budget bill was passed, NASWA release a statement applauding the effort and acknowledging several 2018 legislative priority wins as a result:

"The National Association of State Workforce Agencies' (NASWA) applauds the bipartisan effort in Congress to pass the FY 2018 Omnibus budget bill and secure vitally needed funding for our nation's workforce system.

The Omnibus bill not only restores funding for our Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) and Employment Service programming proposed to be cut during FY 2018 budget process, but also provides sorely needed increases for a host of workforce programs vital to workforce and economic development success across the nation."

IOWA WIOA PARTNER'S CONFERENCE

DES MOINES - Senator Tom Harkin is set to serve as the keynote speaker for the 2018 One Door Many Paths, a Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) partners' conference May 21.

A proponent of the rights of individuals with disabilities, introducing the Americans with Disabilities Act, Harkin's presentation will serve as a capstone to the summit's agenda, which will serve to showcase and build on nationally recognized best practices in:

- Career Pathways
- Sector Partnerships
- Collaboration/Sharing Customers
- Integrated Education and Training
- Service Design
- Promising Practices
- Serving Targeted Populations (Persons with Disabilities, Youth, Ex-Offenders, etc.)

The conference, set to be held at the Sheraton West Des Moines, is Iowa's second jointly facilitated event by Iowa Workforce Development, the Iowa Department of Education, Iowa Vocational Rehabilitation Services, Iowa Department for the Blind, and the Association of Iowa Workforce Partners in partnership with several other key state agencies and community partners.

Register to attend by Friday, April 20 to save 20% on your registration fee.

2018 NEW MEXICO EMPLOYER SUMMIT

On February 20, 2018, the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions came together with businesses, associations, non profits, and government agencies to present the New Mexico Employer Summit. The event took place at the Central New Mexico Community College Workforce Training Center.

The New Mexico Employer Summit is an event designed for employers to connect and share approaches to employment issues that will have an impact on New Mexico businesses. The Summit provides an opportunity for public, nonprofit, and private sectors to engage in dialogue beyond day-to-day operations.

Secretary Bussey kicked off the event with opening remarks, followed by a presentation by keynote speaker, Scott Ferrin, Field Service Director for Society for Human Resource Management, about "Addressing the Skills Gap". Attendees were also able to take part in discussions featuring different panelists for topics such as, "Managing a Multigenerational Workforce", "Unemployment Insurance Overview for Employers", and "Running a Business and Maintaining a Payroll." The working lunch featured a discussion on "Identifying Resources for Small Businesses and Entrepreneurs."

UTAH'S WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM DIVISION DIRECTOR TESTIFIES BEFORE CONGRESS ON "WORK-FIRST" MODEL

On March 15th, the Education and Workforce Subcommittee on Higher Education and Workforce Development held a hearing on " Strengthening Access and Accountability to Work in Welfare Programs."

The hearing largely focused on the role of work requirements in TANF and other entitlement programs and whether such requirements were beneficial to both the programs and its recipients.

NASWA accompanied Liz Carver, Workforce Development Program Division Director, Utah Department of Workforce Services, for her testimony. She discussed how Utah,
